

I thought it was ok not to use a condom if we both have HIV...

People living with HIV are at risk from reinfection (or superinfection) if they have sex with someone else who has HIV. It is important that you always use condoms regardless of your partner's status.

DON'T THINK... KNOW!